

At the Graveside

“The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty giveth me life. “
(Job 33:4)

“It is the Spirit that giveth life:
the flesh profiteth nothing:
the words that I have spoken unto you are Spirit, and are life.”
(John 6:63)

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts, and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus.”
(Phillipians. 4:7)

Let us pray:

Heavenly Father, we know there is no separation in Spirit. Through Thee we are eternally united, one with another.

We know that Thy divine love enfolds and protects us all.

Let the peace of Thy divine compassion fill our hearts as we place this loved one in Thy loving care.

“For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever, and ever. Amen.
